

A happy homeowner is our common goal.

Hi, I'm Kuljit Sandhu, your BMO Mortgage Specialist.

I understand that buying a new home is a big step for your clients. They count on you to help them find the right home, and they also need the right financing solutions to ensure they can afford it.

That's where I come in. I'm committed to helping you and your clients by:

- Delivering a superior customer experience and in turn developing mutual customer loyalty.
- Being available whenever and wherever it's convenient for you or your clients.
- Providing a wide range of home financing solutions and alternatives to meet every client need.
- Offering competitive rates.
- Getting your clients approved – either in house or through our alternative mortgage provider, Spectrum.
- Providing a broad range of additional services to meet all your clients' financial goals.
- Supporting your business goals by helping you expand your network and diversify your client sources.
- Helping you grow your business!

In my 17 years working as a Mortgage Specialist for BMO Bank of Montreal, Canada's first bank, I've been proud to help turn our clients' dreams of home ownership into a reality.
